(Mr.D.E.Hollinshead who escorted us to the cemetery told us that there were a number of unmarked graves in the lot.Among these is the grave of a Civil War Veteran,???-Collins.)

John Kier-Co.G.-I56-Ill. Inf.-is reported to be buried in the Hollinsworth Cemetery. We did not find his grave.

Summit Hill--an early community burial lot-located in twp.of Ustick,Sec.24,Whiteside County,Illinois. It is at the top of a hill south of the corner where the Ustick Store was located. W.E.Connelly presently owns the farm. The pine trees which once marked the place are all gone. All that remains is a clump of lilacs and a few broken stones. Old settlers say that there were twenty or more graves there.We found only two stones standing.There were several pieces of stone which we tried to put together.The following is what we found.

Eliza,wife ofF.J.Williams,d.Apr.6,I868-40 yrs
Isaac,son of J.K.& M.Robertson,d.Oct.22,I860-I0 mo.

Broken stone-d.I863
Susan E.dau J.K.& M Robertson- dates gone-
Broken stones-four pieces which put together-gave the name,James-
One piece to which no other fit The right edge was straight so the markings would be the end of names etc. Top line--nt;2nd.-of;3rd.-ninger;4th.-d;5th.8 or 362.
Stone on which we made outthe name-Seth Williams-no dates.

We inquired about the families who lived near the burial lot inpast years.We found Mr.Charles Rick-who as a boy lived on an adjoining farm. He said F.J.Williams is also buried there.He said there were many Williams, Robertson,Surry graves there when he was young.He also said that a Smaltz child was buried there.

This data gives the history of the transfer of land once owned by your ancestors.

You will find it interesting to note changes in spelling, Jacob Cohn at the end of the "Indenture" is spelled Coon--very similar to Coon. The entire record covered three large hand written pages, in the York Court House.

Respectfully, --
